-Foreword-

This publication is presented as a symbol of the motto of Olivet Nazarene College, "Education with a Christian Purpose."

It is at Olivet a student is taught that education, based on Christian principles, will help the individual in his continuous reconstruction and readjustment of experience; that understanding, appreciation and participating in the fruitful Christian way of living will lead to a balanced, normal and effective life.

In these pages it can be seen that the product of Christian education, basically grounded as he is in Christ, will be equipped to serve the needy world of this day.

Pictorial Review

Spacious, Attractive, Strategically Located

Where there is a wise, inspired administration working in conjunction with a democratic student organization, genuine goodwill prevails and worthwhile objectives are realized.

Olivet is proud of the existing relationship between the Associated Students and the Administration because it points toward a better spirited, more loyal student body and alumni.

EDWARD BEHR

Under the competent direction of President Edward Behr, the Council of Associated Students has constantly endeavored to coordinate the desires of the student body and the administration of Olivet.

The highlight of the year's activity was the dedication of the beautiful Student Union Room. It is here the campus organizations and students may exercise their various functions. Many other activities and improvements, such as laying plans for the construction of new roads on campus, have been sponsored by this year's Council.

Officers for the year were: Edward Behr, president; Robert Knuth, secretary; and Wilmer Watson, treasurer. Dr. Willis Snowbarger was chosen as faculty sponsor for the year.

Life at Olivet

Parties and afternoon teas in the parlors enable one to get acquainted with almost every student on campus. We are indeed fortunate to have access to the social advantages which have been provided for us at Olivet, for it is while participating in such events that we learn how to derive beauty from life.

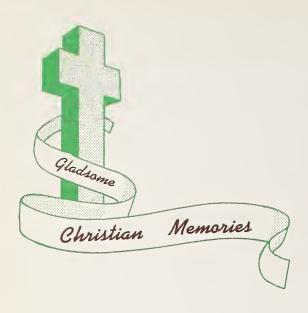

Women's Residence Association

Men's Dormitory Association

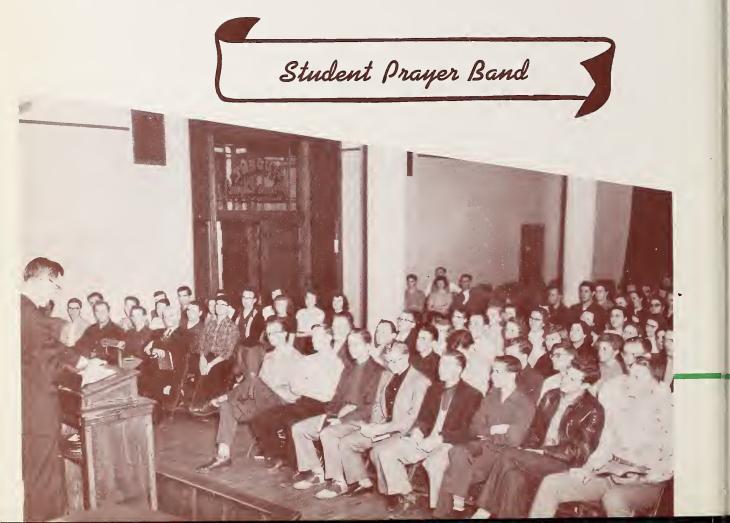

It is necessary for the student to have a home while in college. This is an important function of comfortable, modern dormitory rooms. Also, it is while relaxing in these rooms that lasting friendships are begun, the news of the day discussed, and lessons prepared for another day.

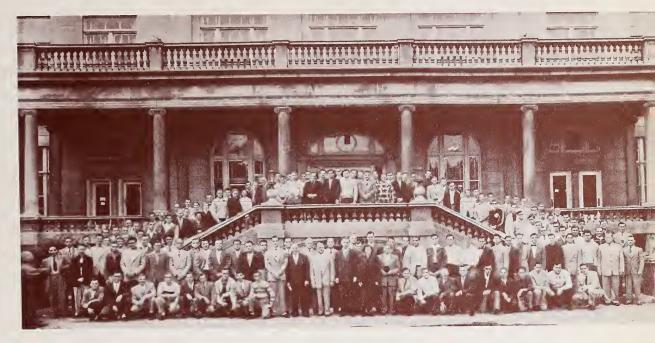

Breadth of vision and a love for the lost are natural outgrowths of spiritual emphasis by the college religious groups.

From Self to Others

demands that we studywork, to show ourselves approved laborers in the Master's vineyard. So we follow the light of knowledge along paths already worn by the feet of earnest seekers, or we flash our beam into the darkened corners of personal experience.

And in the union of what others have known and what we have gleaned from the harvest of the present we are prepared for the tomorrows.

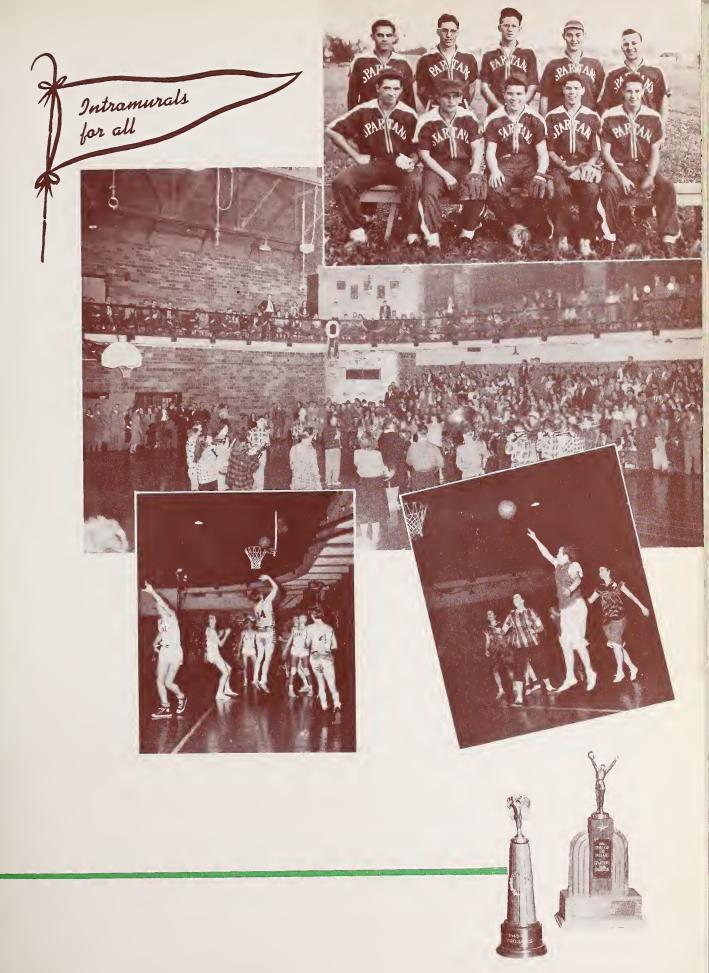

Some of the happiest times of our lives come when we mingle with our friends in the social program of the college. Donning our best, we join in the extra-curricular events—formal yet expressive of our own best selves. Or if it pleases us more we take in an evening of hilarious, sparkling sport. It's all included in a Christian education.

Dedication

For the manifold blessings of lives given so unreservedly to His will; for the constant inspiration of talents expended for the Master's use; for aesthetic appreciations so bountifully shared through music and song; and for their significant contribution to the progress of our college during their more than twenty years of service, we, the 1952 Aurora Staff, "lift our voice in praise" to DR. and MRS. WALTER BURDICK LARSEN.

Forty years ago there was a small struggling school in Olivet, Illinois, which was offered to the Church of the Nazarene. This proffered gift, Illinois Holiness University, was received by the Church of the Nazarene in 1912. In 1940 this College was moved to Kankakee, Illinois. This, in brief, is the history of Olivet Nazarene College.

Forty years have gone by, and forty years of service have been rendered to the Church of the Nazarene and to the entire world. Forty years of "Education With a Christian Purpose" have given to the cause of Jesus Christ scores of pastors, evangelists, musicians, missionaries, and Christian workers.

Forty years have added to the Alumni membership until it now totals two thousand men and women in places of leadership in the professions, in the home, and in business; and other thousands have received training within Olivet's portals and likewise are serving with distinction.

Forty years of progress! Forty years of Christian service! Forty years of spiritual leadership! Forty years of glorious achievement!

And, now, the God who has led Olivet through these forty years, points to the future years. Thus, Olivet turns to a new point of beginning with a clear vision of her task. With faith, hope, and love she proposes to give the youth of the Church of the Nazarene, more fully than ever before, "Education With a Christian Purpose."

College Church Pastor

The College Church stands solidly with the College in emphasizing the spiritual values of life, in promoting evangelism, in seeking the growth and development of Christian character, in providing means of expression, and opening avenues of service. The student body is high in the interests of the College Church; its pastor offering full-time counselling service, its choirs utilizing the students, and its organizations student-led wherever possible. Students find places of service in the Sunday school, in the various youth groups, and in the proper missionary society chapters. Two Christian Service Training Classes are organized each year, with courses especially fitted for the college students. The College Church definitely favors Christian education, and gears with the College in promoting it at Olivet.

DR. SAMUEL YOUNG General Superintendent Church of the Nazarene

The fall revival, with General Superintendent Young preaching and Professor Gerald Greenlee singing, was witnessed by many who were both encouraged and shown the way to profitable Christian living. Dr. Young's deep insight of the spiritual problems confronting the present day college student, and the timely advice given in his sermons, raised him in the esteem of all Olivetians.

Evangelists

With Reverend Lyle Eckley preaching, and Reverend Murray L. Morford singing, the student body was greatly blessed and encouraged during the spring revival. Some 150 seniors witnessed it as their last revival while college students. Many students hurried to an altar of prayer as a result of the convicting messages of Reverend Eckley and found Christ as their personal Savior. It seemed that all in attendance were uplifted by the ministry of these two men of God.

The power of a "Ministry in Music" has long been recognized as a useful tool in the presentation of the Gospel. Our Orpheus Choir, under the direction of Professor Walter B. Larsen, endeavors to utilize this power to the fullest extent, ministering through music in concert, chapel, and church services.

The Orpheus Choir made thirteen appearances in Indiana, Ohio and Michigan during its nineteenth concert season. The program included works by Bach, Wood, Clokey, Griswold, Thomas Weelkes, and Eric Delamarter.

The officers of Orpheus: Curtis Brady, president; Dick Neiderhiser, vicepresident; Margaret Albert, secretary; and William Leggee, business manager.

Under the leadership of Professor Fardig assisted by Harlow Hopkins, junior in music, the Band played for many campus affairs. Upon occasion it brightened the chapel service with prelude and accompaniment to the singing. It broke the peace of the evening in welcome to the motorcades and proved most popular at the society basketball games.

A notable feature of the season was the presentation of concerts and school music assemblies at many of our local area high schools. Programs featured outstanding instrumentalists in solo and ensemble.

Officers for the year included William Leggee, president; Paul Newby, vice-president; Rose Ann McAllister, secretary-treasurer; and Glenna Nance, chief librarian.

The Olivet Symphony Orchestra has, over a period of years, assumed an increasingly important role in the musical life of the campus. With Professor Walter B. Larsen, conductor, and Miss Jewell Flaugher, concertmaster, the orchestra has attained a high degree of musical efficiency. The forty-five members of the symphony, while enriching the cultural life of the college community, also received invaluable ensemble experience.

Highlights of the 1951-52 season included periodic appearances in the Sunday evening services of the College Church, a concert in Chapel, and assisting the combined college choirs in the presentation of the Messiah.

The purpose of this club, which is a chapter of the Music Educators' National Conference, is to acquaint students with the varied vocational possibilities of music education and in so doing, to strengthen, stimulate and promote their interest in this field.

A Music Festival-Clinic was sponsored by this organization for the study of school music and contest problems. Many music educators from the surrounding area were informed and inspired through this feature.

Officers for the year were: William Leggee, president; Harlow Hopkins, vice-president; Martha Morris, secretary-treasurer and Harriet Boughan, program chairman.

Cultural development is an integral part of character building, and the music we choose is a contributing factor.

The resources of organ literature are inexhaustible and not as accessible to the average music lover as most other instrumental works. We at O.N.C. are favored indeed with so many opportunities available to draw on this phase of cultural wealth and develop our appreciation for it.

Guild activities are interesting and varied. They include recitals, field trips and informative programs.

Officers for this year: June Barsalou, president; Phyllis McGraw, vice-president; Phyllis Blackwell, secretary; Betty Steenbergen, treasurer. Dr. Ella Leona Gale was an ideal sponsor.

FROM THE EDITOR:

Jim

While gathering the necessary material and compiling this book, it has been the desire of the Aurora Staff to produce a publication which would present a summary of this year's activities. We desire that this summary will be sufficient to help the student body appreciate our Olivet as it is today, and that it will cause us to relive in the future the pleasant days which were ours while in college.

The completion of this edition has been made possible because of contributions by the students, and especially the expenditure of time, talents and patience by the efficient Aurora Staff with whom I have worked. Also aiding immeasurable in this production has been our faculty advisor and campus photographer Professor D. J. Strickler.

It is with anticipation for your experiencing many pleasant moments while reading it, that we present to you The Aurora of 1952.

Olivet's Campus Newspaper is the Glimmerglass. This organization is a member of the Associated Collegiate Press, and is published by the students as a medium through which they may learn more about practical journalism. It is published bi-weekly, and its distribution is always anticipated with much interest by the student body.

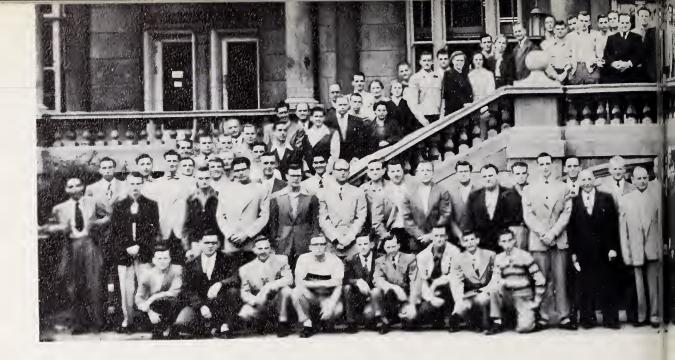

Editor Strahl, Business Manager Durick, and their efficient Staff have succeeded in mirroring the spiritual, academic and social activities of the five departments of the college. It is through the efforts of the Glimmerglass Staff and the Faculty Advisor, Professor Leroy Brown, that the students of Olivet have become more aware of the activities and advantages one may enjoy while attending a Christian college.

STUDENT MISSIONARY BAND

The purpose of the Student Missionary Band of Olivet Nazarene College is to organize its members into a missionary-minded company so that this group may be able to work together and learn what the needs are in the mission field.

This year the group sponsored a Foreign Mission Project, and, with the help of the students in the regular missionary offerings, was able to build a chapel on a foreign field.

The officers for the Band this year were as follows: sponsor, Mrs. Harold Reed; president, Harold Canaday; vice-president, Carl Allen; secretary, Mrs. Harold Canaday; treasurer, Ricardo Fernandez.

To promote fellowship among the ministerial students of Olivet; and to study ministerial problems are the objectives of the Ministerial Fellowship.

The Fellowship sponsored a chapel program each month of the school year.

Leading Olivet's ministerial students were: John Jarnagin, president; Dorothy Erich, secretary; and Kenneth Matheny, treasurer. Dr. J. Russell Gardner was the sponsor.

English Guild

First row: M. Voss, M. Anthony, F. Krabill, G. Brewer, M. Booth, M. Cummings. Second row: D. Sievers, H. Bourgeois, J. Stauffer, B. Blanchard, L. Hughes. Third row: R. Fernandez, C. Pauley, D. Miller, L. Fisher, Dean McClain, Miss Bump.

1952 ends the eighth year for the Olivet English Guild. Since its beginning the Guild has endeavored to stimulate an appreciation for great literature and to encourage creative writing among its members and with their campus compeers. To uphold the Christian ideals of our college has been a companion purpose of the English Guild.

Shakespearean dramas and sonnets have provided an interesting theme for each of the monthly programs. Our notable projects this year have been the sale of mums at "Tip Off," the presentation of books to the Division of Language and Literature of the college library, and the sponsoring of a Shakespearean film.

The chosen officers were: president, Frances Krabill; vice-president, Marilyn Cummings; secretary, Janice Stauffer; treasurer, Charles Pauley. The faculty sponsor was Miss Ruth Bump.

The Sociology Club seeks to interest the students of Olivet Nazarene College in the social forces at work in our world. Through its activities it hopes to inform its members of the current trends of social thought and to provide a means of friendship among students working in sociology.

The monthly programs are aimed to provide the Christian approach to present social problems.

The officers this year were: Harold Curl, president; Wilmer Watson, vice-president; Janice Stauffer, secretary-treasurer. The club's sponsor was Professor Parr.

First row: F. Shira, W. Smith, R. Ayer, C. Stone, H. Brooks, V. Saldeen, T. Fallon.

Sociology Club

Under the sponsorship of Professor Harvey Humble and Dr. Willis Snow-barger the Historical Society and the International Relations Club were combined to form the Public Relations Club. The purpose of the Club is to stimulate an interest in world affairs and to create a vital interest in local political activities.

The society secured outstanding political personalities as guest chapel speakers.

Serving the society this year were Roy Hendley, president; Walter Davis, vice-president; and Marilyn Cotner, secretary-treasurer.

First row: J. Dennis, W. Watson, J. Leach, D. Holland, R. Van Gordon, G. Logsdon.

Second row: T. Baxter, R. Hendley, D. Pinner, B. Carroll, F. Krabill, C. Gates, T. Fallon.

Professor Lunsford.

To give those students, deeply interested in philosophy, and who have had at least six hours of this subject, an opportunity to meet and hear outstanding speakers in this field, as well as to discuss several concepts of philosophy and philosophical subjects is the aim of this organization.

The society presented guest speakers in chapel each semester. Also, sponsored the annual spring banquet in conjunction with the Ministerial Fellowship.

Officers for the year were: Dale Kyle, president; Walter Loftice, treasurer; Norma Turley, secretary.

Future Teachers of America

First row: J. Youngblood, M. VanMeter, F. Winne, H. Shira, J. Muhm, T. Sexton, C. Stone, C. Pauley, R. Flemming, M. Booth.

Hendricker, R. Payne, V. King, D. Turner, C. Strahl, J. Walker, B. Nauman, C. Marsh, M. Sheller, J. Spencer, L. Miller.

The objective of this organization is to acquaint students with the field of education beyond the college classroom by the study of the history, ethics and program of the teaching profession.

This year's activities included the observance of National Education Week by a display in the library, by the presentation of a program over local radio station WKAN and a special chapel speaker. Other features included educational films and special speakers.

Officers for this year were Roma Gates, president; Frances Krabill, vice-president; Marjorie Bowes, secretary; Calvin Johnson, treasurer; Elizabeth Watkins, librarian. Professor William Sloan was the sponsor.

The Commerce Club has as its aims to motivate the interest of students in business, to induce scholarship, to promulgate contacts with the outside business world, to provide social activities among the members, and to promote better Christian ideals among business students.

This year the Club's meetings included several social events, lectures by visiting business men, and religious and business films.

In October the Business Department, under the leadership of Dr. L. G. Mitten, held its first Olivet Business Convention. Many Nazarene businessmen and former Business Department graduates were invited to this one-day event, and in general, the convention proved to be very successful and profitable to all who attended.

The officers for this year were Robert Knuth, president; Donald Winne, vice-president; Barbara Hildreth, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Mitten was club sponsor.

First row: J. Shafer, M. Ceralde, C. Voigt, D. Craig, R. Ayer, H. Brooks, N. Swanson.

Second row: R. Clark, W. Watson, H. Voss, B. Bell, J. Oliver, D. Winne, R. Knuth, B. Hildreth, W. Campbell.

Commerce Society

It is the purpose of the Linguistic Society to develop fellowship among foreign language students and introduce the student informally to foreign civilization.

Featured in the monthly meetings were lectures and films dealing with the linguistic and cultural aspects of France, Spain and Latin American countries.

President of the society for this year was Bernard Archer.

This organization seeks to quicken interest in the branches of science, exchange ideas and information concerning the field of science, and encourage interest among students engaged in the study of science.

Field trips, including one to the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago, were enjoyed during the year.

Perhaps the most important event of the year was the annual outdoor breakfast held in May.

Leading the Science Club were: Charles Pauley, president; Eunice Hurt, secretary; Howard Doerle, treasurer; Professor Lane, sponsor.

Women's Residence Association

First row: K. Meloy, J. Arledge, M. Cummings, M. Morris, J. Stauffer, C. Strahl, R. McAllister. Second row: D. Hay, M. Starr, M. Booth, J. Cavender, M. Lane, F. Taylor, E. Morse.

The W.R.A.'s underlying purpose is to create and maintain high standards of Christian character among the women on campus. This organization seeks to uphold the motto of our college, "Education with a Christian Purpose" by enacting and enforcing house rules for women residents.

The W.R.A. sponsors the annual occasion of "Open House" for all students, the Big-Little Sister Party, the Christmas Sing, and one of the final social events for the Senior Class, the Investiture Day Tea.

The officers of the W.R.A. Council were: Martha Morris, president; Joy Arledge, vice-president; Katherine Meloy, secretary; Faye Taylor, treasurer; Dean Zook, sponsor.

This year a new organization has been created on the campus, the Men's Dormitory Association. This organization was formed by the residents of Chapman Hall with Dean Paul Schwada and Professor R. Wayne Gardner assisting.

The M.D.A. had a good year, endeavoring to make itself an active organization of campus life and to better represent the men of the residence hall in any problems that might confront them.

The officers for the year were: Tom Sexton, president; George Fowler, vice-president; Russell Clark, secretary-treasurer.

THE STUDENT PRAYER BAND

The Student Prayer Band is an organization comprised of the entire student body. Its prime objective is to generate and maintain spiritual life on the campus.

The Student Prayer Band meets in lovely Kelly Chapel where inspiring services are held five nights a week. Much stress is laid upon individual participation, thus a large portion of time is allotted to testimonies. As a further means of spiritual help, opportunity is given for exhortation both from the prayer band leader and other student preachers.

The elected officers of the year were as follows: President, Kenneth Matheny; vice-president, Thomas Pauley; secretary-treasurer, Mildred Booth; sponsor, Professor Ruth Bump.

First row: J. Youngblood, N. Turley, Professor Bowman, A. Davis, F. Welch. Second row: R. Kramer, D. Erich, A. Eaker, B. Ramey, R. McAllister.

Daughters of Martha Ann Wines

This is an organization to promote the spiritual life, to develop talents, and to provide fellowship and better understanding among young women who are called to the Christian ministry.

Officers for the year were: President, Dorothy Erick; vice-president, Rose Ann McAllister; secretary, Alma Eaker; treasurer, Betty June Youngblood; publicity director, Norma Turley; faculty adviser, Mrs. Blanche Bowman.

DEBATE

As a result of long hours of gathering evidence for their case, the Debate Squad enjoyed successful meets in the Bradley University Debate Tournament and also with the Harvard University squad.

Chi Sigma Rho strives to encourage active interest in speech activities and to promote good public relations by furnishing short programs for schools and civic organizations and a variety of Saturday evening programs on the campus.

A chapel program, based upon the theme of Christmas, was a highlight of the winter. The annual poetry festival, with the J. E. Moore Bible Reading contest as one event, was an accomplishment of the spring.

Heading the club were Richard Edwards, president; Charles Pauley, vice-president; Janice Stauffer, secretary; and Rae Nell Payne, treasurer. Professor LeRoy Brown was faculty sponsor.

FUNCTIONS OF THE "O" CLUB

The "O" Club at Olivet Nazarene College consists of the athletes of the school who have received all-star honors in any sport in the athletic program.

Members are chosen at the conclusion of each season by a faculty committee who witness the contests.

Spartan Football

The Spartans eliminated a three-way tie possibility by trouncing the Trojans in the final game, thus they cinched the gridiron championship. Loaded with line-power as well as speedy backs, the George Fowler-coached eleven was easily the champion, despite single losses to each of the other societies.

Line: C. Baker, R. Hendley, O. King, L. Fisher, J. Lane, D. Van Gordon, T. Baxter. Backfield: D. Bell, M. Reed, B. Jordan.

Indian Football

The Indians were riding the cellar with a won-one; lost-three mark when the final round of play began. However, victories over both the Trojans and Spartans netted them the runnerup spot with a 3-3 mark. Coach Don Bell was the league's top scorer with seven touchdowns.

Line: T. Pauley, D. Williamson, V. Doner, C. Garvin, J. Galloway. Backfield: G. Smith, C. Johnson, D. Cummings.

Trojan Football

Highlight of a rather dismal year for the defending champion Trojans was a 6-0 victory over the '51 champion Spartans. However, from here the men in blue fell to the bottom of the heap with a 2-4 mark. Their lack of depth in talent and material was overshadowed by the determination instilled in them by coaches Butch Ward and Cal Johnson.

Spartan Softball

For the second consecutive year, Don Durick led the men in green to a winning season. Last year they were only runnersup, but this fall, emerged champions. "Governor" Durick batted .363 and pitched all six of the victorious contests. Eddie Mattax was player-coach of the champions.

Sitting: D. Durick, E. Mattox, B. Reich, L. Sheckler, W. Watson. Standing: D. Watson, B. Small, E. Behr, C. McRoberts, D. Mathews.

Indian Softball

The defending champions got off on the wrong foot in this season's warfare and were forced to settle for a won-two; lost-four runnerup mark. Gene Houchin, along with "Windy" Parsons and Jerry Green, shared mound activities. Jim Hogan coached the second-placers.

Sitting: J. Hogan, G. Morgan, W. Parsons, J. Oliver. Standing: G. Houchin, T. Baxter, C. McCullough, D. Neiderhiser.

Trojan Softball

Despite the presence of three of the top four hitters in the league on their squad, the Trojans settled in cellar of this fall's softball warfare. Bob Knuth worked all the games on the mound for the men in blue. Likeable Vic Doner coached the scrappy nine.

Sitting: T. Craig, J. Nash, D. Craig, D. York, V. Doner. Standing: J. Wills, B. Knuth, D. Miller, M. Jeffrey.

Indian Basketball

Lacking height all season, the scrappy little Indians made up for dearth of talent in their spirited attitude in all the season's warfare. Coached by Tom Clendenen and Tim Baxter, the Indians displayed fine sportsmanship, despite losing their final four games of the campaign. Chuck McCullough, junior forward, was the league's top scorer.

Spartan Basketball

Thanks to a last round drive, the Spartan cagers of 1951-52 managed a second-place deadlock with the Indians. Each squad lost to the Trojans four times, but the Indians bested the Men in Green in both the first and second rounds. However, the Spartans grabbed the final two round decisions to insure the second place tie. Don Durick coached the Spartan cagers.

Indian Softball

Despite an abbreviated season, the Indian softballers captured the girls softball crown with two decisions over the Spartans and two from the Trojans. Lora Hiatt was the Indian coach.

Kneeling: J. Spencer, J. Cole, M. Horner, M. McAllister, M. Cotner. Standing: M. Ruble, V. Hendricker, M. McLaughlin, D. Hay, M. DeBooy.

Spartan Softball

Playing only two games, the Spartan girls were winless in both efforts with the Indians. However, two wins over the Trojans enabled the green-clad softballers to annex an even 2-2 slate.

First row: N. Combs, P. Gilbert, B. Neibarger. Back row: D. Imel, J. Fuller, R. Mefford, B. Drake.

Trojan Softball

This was a most disappointing season for the girls in blue because the final records showed a winless campaign for them. However, their morale was not destroyed, and they are already anticipating a more successful season next year.

Kneeling: B. Bell, D. Nichols, B. Roat, M. Mitchell. Standing: S. Strickler, L. Hiatt, R. Laycox.

Indian Basketball

After topping the Spartans in the first two games, the Indians faltered near the finish line and thus settled for a first place deadlock with the Spartans. A mid-season injury to Lora Hiatt hurt the Indian offensive machine tremendously and left the burden on Shirley Strickler who finished as the loop's top scorer. The girls in red were coached by Don Bell.

Spartan Basketball

A well-balanced offense and a scrappy defense spelled a first place deadlock for the Spartan girls with the rival Indians. The Spartans topped the Redskins in each of the last two games to clinch the tie. Marilyn Starr, Jackie Spencer, and Vera Hendricker were stalwarts on offense. Eddie Mattax was their coach.

Kneeling: N. Combs, D. Imel, R. Mefford, F. Fry. Standing: P. Gilbert, B. Drake, B. Neibarger, L. Swanson.

Trojan Basketball

The Trojan girls, displaying without a doubt the finest spirit of all athletic teams at Olivet, coundn't seem to win. Their lack of height hurt them tremendously and they failed to register a victory in all eight contests. Coach of the Trojan girls was Bob Knuth.

INSIDE THE CHURCH: The First Church of the Nazarene, Franklin and Seminary, Danville, Illinois. The main auditorium has been the scene of many beautiful weddings, formal and informal. The church altar has been the sacred place where thousands have been saved and sanctified and encouraged. From the church pulpit some of the greatest preachers of our denomination have spoken forth God's Word. Hundreds have been baptized in the church's elevated baptistry. God is in the midst of His people.
